

POLICE TRAINING SERVICES COMPANY
OFFICER INVOLVED SHOOTING SEMINAR

Police Training Services Company (PTSC) is proud to announce that the popular seminar series, “Officer Involved Shootings” has returned and will be hosted by Huntington Beach Police Department. These seminars feature officers who were involved in shootings.

Recently retired Los Angeles Police Officer Todd Rheingold will discuss two of the shootings he was involved with. While a member of the LAPD SWAT Team Todd was involved in the “Pena” shooting and the “Randy Simmons” shooting. Officer Rheingold will discuss personal preparation prior to a shooting; tactical preparations; the tactics involved in both shootings; the tactical aftermath; and finally, the incident’s personal impact on those involved (officers, family, and department). Officer Rheingold recently retired from the LAPD after thirty years of service and approximately fourteen of those with SWAT.

Lieutenant Art Ruditsky, Los Angeles Police Department (Retired) will follow in the afternoon with a “Responding to Officer Involved Shootings” presentation. Utilizing PowerPoint, audience interaction and videos, Art will discuss the numerous details that must be dealt with by responding patrol officers and supervisors. Some of the topics to be reviewed will be: officer safety, searches, emotional stress of involved officers and dealing with officer/suspect injuries.

If you have never been involved in a shooting or responded to one this seminar is a must for your personal and career survival. The seminar is designed for both officers and supervisors.
