

The California Peace Officers' Association Presents:

Leadership & Accountability: LAPD's Rampart Scandal

September 9, 2013 • 8:00 am – 5:00 pm

Steel Workers Auditorium • 8437 Sierra Avenue • Fontana • 92335

Registration Fee: $49

Featuring: Retired LAPD Captain Rich Meraz's dialogue of his first-hand account of the Rampart scandal and San Diego PD Captain Miguel Rosario's first-hand account of the 1984 San Ysidro McDonald's Massacre as case studies in leadership.

This course is an interactive workshop that introduces the students to a spectrum of interconnected, cutting-edge leadership strategies that challenges stagnant traditions, evoking individual paradigm shifts from the traditional policing approach to one that fulfills the evolving role of today's paramount law enforcement leaders. What do contemporary law enforcement professionals look like? Using the innovative 3-D Cop Leadership model, this course is designed to provide a vista into contemporary leadership concepts while enhancing the leadership skills of law enforcement professionals of all ranks.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: All Law Enforcement professionals interested in developing and enhancing the leadership skills necessary to become impactful game changers.

COURSE OBJECTIVES: Learn the key to leadership excellence: Become a 3D-Cop • Warrior, servant, leader mindset • The critical role of character and ethics in leadership • Self-esteem and egotism • Effective leadership concepts • Case studies of historical figures and events to gain insight into leadership practices • Inspiring high performance and commitment • Commitment vs. Compliance
