

The Regional Communications System provides POST Certified radio training classes at no cost to all agencies who use the radio system.

FIELD RADIO USER CLASS October 18, 2013

Law Enforcement Personnel

Communication solutions are important within your Agency and as you interface with multiple Agencies.

This class consists of (8) hours of instruction to equip Law Enforcement Personnel with the tools needed to effectively manage Radio Use communications.

Upcoming Field User Class:
Classes are POST certified
(Plan IV – 8 hours)

Field Radio User Class (Law Enforcement Personnel)

Friday, October 18, 2013
8:00am – 5:00pm
Sheriff's Administrative Center
9621 Ridgeway Court,
Training Room 1 & 2
San Diego, CA 92123

Topics:

- How the radio system works
- (and why it matters to you)
- Failsoft & Site Trunking
- Coverage areas
- Operation of portable and Vehicle radios
- Out of County Channel use
- Mutual Aid Communication Protocols
- And much more!

To Register on the RCS Website: RCS800mhz.org

If your facility or unit is interested in hosting a class or you need assistance registering on the site; please contact:

Elissa Dorame - Staff Development Specialist
San Diego County Sheriff's Wireless Services Division
Elissa.Dorame@sdsheriff.org