

California Sexual Assault Investigators' Association

One Day Training

Working with Victims: Interviewing and Pretext Call Strategies

February 2nd, 2016, 0800-1700 hours

Chula Vista Police Department

315 Fourth Ave., Chula Vista, CA. 91910

This One Day Training Course will provide sexual assault investigators and interview specialists with the advanced knowledge and skills needed to interview an adult victim of a non-stranger sexual assault and work with the victim to prepare and conduct a successful pretext call.

Presenters:

Sarah Meredith: Director, Center for Advocacy Resources and Education, UC Davis Office of the Provost; POST Master Instructor

Rick Barton: DA Investigator (Retired) Butte County DA's Office, Special Victims Unit; POST Master Instructor

Topics will include:

- Advanced Victim Dynamics and Interviewing
 - ✓ Understanding the impact of trauma
 - Neurobiology of memory & Counterintuitive behaviors
 - ✓ Understanding the impact on the victim.
 - ✓ Advanced Victim Interview Techniques: An overview of the Forensic Experiential Trauma Interview (FETI) and reinforcing the essential elements of a victim interview.
- Pretext Call Preparation and Techniques
 - ✓ Governing Laws
 - ✓ Equipment and Outside Resources
 - ✓ Victim Preparation and Advanced Strategies
 - ✓ Text Messaging Pretext Strategies
 - ✓ Developing Suspect Interview Strategies with Completed Pretext Calls
 - ✓ Audio and Video Examples

Cost: $35.00 per person

Register and Pay online at www.csaia.org or call CSAIA (951) 290-8261

Payment must be made in advance. Registration will close on January 26th, 2016

POST Certification available through South Bay Regional Public Safety Training

POST Plan: N/A MCLE/CEU credits available