Refer to POST Course Catalog: Leading the Professional Employee
STC Course Certification Number# 07456736

COURSE OVERVIEW:

This new course is focused on the dynamics of leading professional staff employees in a law enforcement agency. Supervisors, managers and aspiring leaders are provided with a contemporary professional growth opportunity exploring the various leadership concepts involved with the ongoing appraisal of workplace productivity and personnel performance evaluations. Through facilitator-led discussions and learning activities, students will engage in topics including the impact of effective performance documentation related to organizational culture, providing effective feedback about performance, common appraisal mistakes, organizational pitfalls, performance accountability and leadership characteristics. This course also examines supervisory and managerial responsibilities in the areas of continuous engagement and monitoring of employee performance related to organizational goals, evaluating proactive problem-solving efforts and effective delivery of law enforcement services to the community.

PRESENTER:

Lisa Murphy, Training Facilitator

Lisa Murphy served with the Vacaville Police Department in California for over 25 years. Her many assignments included Training Manager, Records Supervisor, Court Liaison, Grant Writer, Patrol Community Service Officer, Field Training Officer and Intern Program Coordinator. Lisa holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Leadership and Organizational Studies from Saint Mary's College of California with additional coursework in Management and Business. She holds a Master of Science degree in Law Enforcement and Public Safety Leadership through the University of San Diego. Lisa is the current President of the Napa-Solano Law Enforcement Training Managers' Association and is a member of the California Police Officer's Association Statewide Training Committee.
