Community Policing in the 21st Century to Reduce Conflict

A FREE California POST Certified Plan V Procedural Justice 8-Hour Course
(POST ID #1368-20701)

Program Description:

An engaging course providing officers with effective, real-life tools and strategic communication techniques to enhance officer safety and improve interactions between the police and the public. Officers will learn how to respond safely and effectively to community needs through the implementation of procedural justice and de-escalation strategies for use before, during and after interactions with community members. Created by Long Beach Police Department Sergeant Jason Lehman and facilitated by a team of law enforcement and community leaders, this course incorporates thought-stimulating discussions, personal perspectives and scenario-based exercises that challenge the status quo and engages participants for effective learning and leadership development.

Completion of this course satisfies the POST "Perishable Skills" training requirement for Strategic Communication & 8 hours of CPT credit.

Course Objectives:

- Demonstrate how community partnerships improve officer safety
