Are you or someone you know looking to advance your professional career while also honing your skills in conflict resolution and de-escalation strategies such as conflict analysis, mediation, negotiation and facilitation and dialogue? Join the Kroc School of Peace Studies for an informational Zoom Webinar on our MS in Conflict Management and Resolution. During this session, we will discuss the program and the 50% tuition discount offered to all current and retired law enforcement members

The Master of Science in Conflict Management and Resolution degree prepares grad students to understand and transform interpersonal, group, organizational, community, and system-level conflict in a variety of contexts.

The 30-unit MS-CMR program is offered in a flexible modality for professionals to build a schedule that works for them. Courses are offered fully online (live, remote instruction), in-person, and through a hybrid delivery - a mix of both online and on-campus classes.
